

Strategies and skills for the successful e-Learner

To be a successful e-Learner, you should:

Be open-minded about sharing your work, and educational experiences as part of the learning process.

Evaluate course expectations and accurately assess the time needed to complete the work.

Participate in the learning process whether you are working alone or in a group.

Follow course schedules and complete assignments.

Set interim goals and deadlines for yourself, and stick to them.

Be able to communicate through writing.

Be self-motivated and self-disciplined.
