

A Giant Living Peace Sign

Students at Holy Name Elementary School created a living peace sign to complete "Bullying Awareness Week" on November 19, 2009. The students spent the week learning about living together as a community and having compassion for others.

The students and staff dressed in light blue that day the colour of the UN peacekeepers uniform to show their commitment to the cause. Mr. Ryan organized this wonderful event.