A LESSON IN HUMAN RIGHTS ONTARIO COMMISSIONER VISITS HOLY NAMES STUDENTS

Ontario's human rights system will be the topic of conversation today when the head of the province's Human Rights Commission visits Holy Names Catholic High School. Barbara Hall will speak with students about human rights in Ontario, especially about how students are protected by the Ontario Human Rights Code. Areas such as sexual harassment, racism and discrimination will be included. She will also let students know how then can learn about and advocate for their own rights. Ms. Hall was appointed Chief Commissioner of the Ontario Human Rights Commission on November 28, 2005, after more than thirty years as a community worker, lawyer and municipal politician.

DATE: Tuesday, January 19, 2010

TIME: 1:15 p.m.

LOCATION: Holy Names Catholic High School, 1400 Northwood Street, Windsor

All media are invited to attend this event.
