CAN COLLECTION WARNING

It has been brought to the attention of staff at Assumption College Catholic High School that individuals, dressed in attire from the school, have been going door to door asking for monetary donations for the school's canned food drive. School officials would like to remind the public that the canned food drive has concluded and the food has already been distributed. If anyone comes to your door claiming to be collecting funds for Assumption High School, please do not give them any money. Assumption College Catholic High School does, once again, want to thank everyone that helped the school this year with their 54th annual canned food drive. Thanks to the generosity of many, the students collected 32,500 cans which were donated to St. Vincent de Paul.
